

Tomtom ONE XL- Born To Guide

Just cast your glance at the brimming market of mobile phones to get the pulse of the latest trends and hot styles. As they say when the going gets hot, remaining cool would help you to win the race. The HP iPAQ 214, with its lightening fast 624MHz processor, wi-fi capability and Microsoft mobile 6, ensures a distinct advantage for you in handling complex projects in a jiffy. This handheld PDA is designed with the business user in mind and ensures a “one size fits all” type of solution for all the needs of your mobile enterprise. Manage various projects all at once that too being on the move with this smart gadget.

The large 4-inch TFT touch screen ensures greater visibility and clarity, which makes the operation of Microsoft Office Mobile 6 applications a cake walk where you can work in Word Mobile, Excel Mobile, and Powerpoint Mobile. Add to it the big plus that you can send emails through Outlook Mobile no matter where you are. A beach holiday would not rob off your important business projects anymore! The HP iPAQ 214, can also connect you to the internet via Bluetooth and the new HP smart connector has enough space for your peripherals. Just plug in and get going.

TomTom ONE v4 gives a cutting edge above the rest of the lot as it is packed to the brim with the latest TomTom features, including EasyPort mount, Map Share, TMC capability and TomTom Home. An ideal bet for the astute customer who insists on the best value for money. The latest edition from the working desk of TomTom, it is a simple and secure GPS navigational tool, which could be operated by even greenhorns without any difficulty.

If traveling is your passion all you have to do is to pick up HP iPAQ 314 Travel Companion Navigation System to make the journey fun and easy. The high resolution 800 x 480 pixel touch screen and advanced high definition 3D navigation system, that ensures the greatest possible details through its pan and zoom options, would bring the smiles with miles.

Did you know that the clear and loud spoken on-screen guidance would declare even the street names, which means that you need not lose your way the nth time before reaching the destination. The amazingly fast dual-core 600MHz Titan processor will come up with the location in no time while the integration with your Microsoft Office Outlook Mobile contacts lets you quickly find directions to friends, family and business colleagues. Make your journeys simple and safe with these intelligent widgets that are always on your beck and call. It can also double up as a hands free blue tooth enabled system that allows you to attend those important calls even while being behind the wheels.

TomTom GO 720 Traffic brings the double goodness of the TomTom award winning software with the latest functional features such as Live Traffic via RDS TMC receiver (included), MP3 player, and the up to date preloaded maps of Western Europe and the UK among others in this easy to use system. With TomTom XL too losing your way would be a thing of the past. These smart guides would take you home safely and securely.

About the Author

In case you are baffled with the mounts of irresistible options these gadgets TomTom XL, TomTom GO 720, you can visit <http://www.totalpda.co.uk> to get the pulse of some of the traffic stoppers doing the rounds in the wire free domain. You would not pluck your eyes off the stunning Touch Diamond where beauty meets brain while the GO 720, which wears the celebrity tag of the award winning software, has always been in the good books of perfectionists. No matter which course you opt to take, these gadgets would be your life long companions through your thick and thin. Enjoy!

Source: <http://www.donanyc.com>